ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 22, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, "run-down," pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections, whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain, English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent medicine, for medicines for they are neither being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines fully before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. E. V. Pierce can be consulted gratis by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

THE ABOLITION OF PASSES.

All railroad passes are doomed after January 1. This means that even the trunk lines will abolish the exchange system by which one railroad company permitted the officials of another company to travel over its lines free of charge.

After January 1 the southern railroads will also fall into line and the little pasteboard will not be printed and distributed as heretofore. The southern roads may continue to maintain an exchange list.

The Southern Railway Company will lead in relegating the pass system to the rear in Southern territory. It is also stated that the western railroads, which did not fall into line this year in abolishing passes, will adopt the policy of "no passes" on January 1.

Railroad managers have come to the conclusion that the exceptions under the no-pass clause of the law would enable them, if they chose, to vastly extend the present practice. One railroad manager says the pass clause makes "a favored class out of $4,000,000 of the $5,000,000 inhabitants of the United States," inasmuch as that proportion of the people in a pinch might be crowded in under the various exceptions as follows:

Officers of the railroads and their families, agents of the railroads and their families, employees of the railroads and their families, physicians and surgeons in the employ of the roads and their families, female nurses who served in the civil war, ministers of religion and their families, inmates of hospitals and eleemosynary and charitable institutions, destitute and homeless persons, destitute and homeless persons transported by charitable societies and their necessary agents employed in such transportation, inmates of the national homes or State homes for disabled volunteer soldiers or former Confederate soldiers or former Union soldiers or sailors. Inmates of soldiers and sailors' homes, including not only those who ever entered, but those who "would be alone to enter," if they felt so disposed, and those on their way to friends after being discharged from the homes. Persons who are either traveling with some live stock or going to travel with some if they can get the job. Laborers who are going from one place to another, where they think they can get an increase in wages. The Culberson amendment would not have the slightest effect upon the railroads if they chose to issue free transportation. The amendment says that the railroads "may" issue passes in certain cases. Fortunately for the stockholders of the company the amendment does not say that passes "must" be issued.

None really wished to realize the wide scope of the exceptions, all he has to do is to imagine what kind of a rash would be made to the railroads for free transportation if the railroads were compelled to issue, instead of merely being given permission to issue, free transportation, according to the Culberson amendment.

It would be a very slow person, indeed if he wanted to travel, who could not show that he was a member of some office, employee, attorney, physician of the railroad, or that he was a laborer who wished to better his condition by going elsewhere, or a nurse, or, to say the least, that he was destitute.

It was agreed that the amendment, which was designed to limit the amount of free passes, would practically not limit them at all, because the railroads do not now issue passes to millions of persons who would be entitled under the Culberson amendment to them.

It will cost the national government about $1,000,000 annually to be virtuous on the subject of railroad passes. As soon as the rate bill passed by the Senate went into effect the passes given to government employees were withdrawn.

LIVES

On the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, honorary member of the Mary Custis Lee Chapter of the United Daughters of the C. S. A.

(Deceased to the Mary Custis Lee Chapter)

Where shall she rest whom all delight to praise?

Whose weary pilgrimage at last is o'er, And North and South united voices raise To celebrate a life both strong and pure, And faithful as a woman's life should be, Whom Davis loved with tried fidelity, Where shall she rest? Why 'neath the brave and true.

In Hollywood, the home of broken hearts, Near to the cairn of boulders rough and gray, Like to the men who sternly did their parts, Nor shielded beneath the storm of shot and shell, That seemed to vomit from the mouth of hell, There shall she rest with the heroic dead, And springtime blossoms on her grave be shed.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements, wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 60 cents.

WINE OF CARDUI

Will Lose 10,000,000 Francs a Year.

The relations between the Pope and France are likely to cost the church in France the loss of 10,000,000 francs a year from one single source. This is the fund for perpetual masses, which brings in nearly $2,500,000 a year, and has done so for over 100 years. Catholics, on dying, have left sums to be invested, the interest to be devoted to saving masses in perpetuity. These invested funds amounted to over 200,000,000 francs, or over $40,000,000. On the 11th of next month, if no public worship associations have been formed under the church and State separate law, to whom the money can be transferred in trust, it will all come back into the hands of the government. As it is extremely unlikely that Clemenceau's or any other French government will give orders for masses to be said, the money will live in sequestration, and the church will have deprived itself of a revenue of 10,000,000 francs per annum.
